

Jay Veevers, Brookline GreenSpace Alliance Board member, passed away on December 24, 2008.

Jay will be missed as a friend of the environment, and a thoughtful, generous, creative Board member and contributor to the Brookline community and beyond. She supported many, many philanthropic causes and charities. She was a special person who generously shared her expertise and enthusiasm and unique flair for life and for 'doing good'. Jay, a communications and marketing consultant, helped GreenSpace Alliance spread the message of the importance of land protection and enhancement.

For many, Jay was a beloved inspiration and guide in how to do things well and with beauty. She will be long remembered and honored.
