DECEMBER 6: OLMSTED OPEN HOUSES

On December 6, there will be two open houses related to Frederick Law Olmsted. The National Park Service and the Friends of Fairsted invite you to their annual holiday open house at the Olmsted National Historic Site, 99 Warren Street, on Sunday, December 6, 1:00–4:00 PM. Wander through the historic design office and grounds at your own pace, take part in family-friendly crafts activities, and enjoy light refreshments. Also on December 6, the First Parish in Brookline, 382 Walnut Street, will hold an open house, “Olmsted: Humanist and Activist,” from 2:00–4:00 PM. Meet Frederick Law Olmsted and learn about the values that drove him at his family's church across the street from Fairsted. Kids’ activities and refreshments will be offered.
